

Professional Development
for Teaching Artists

Arts Integration: What's the Objective?

Presenter: Lenore Blank Kelner

Thursday, August 14, 2008
9:30 am – 3:30 pm

Hawai'i State Art Museum
Multi-Purpose Room
250 South Hotel Street, Honolulu

Delve into authentic arts integration. Learn how to set objectives that are meaningful to the classroom teacher and the teaching artist, and discover how they lead the way to reflection and assessment.

Lenore Blank Kelner is an actress, director, playwright, educator, drama specialist, and author. For the past 25 years she has worked with teachers and students nationwide integrating drama into ongoing classroom instruction. She is the recipient of the 2004 Creative Drama Award from the American Alliance for Theatre and Education.

*Free for ATP and Teaching Artists
PLEASE REGISTER BY July 24, 2008*

For more information call @533-2787, or email marcia@hawaiiartsalliance.org.

Please register me for the August 14th Workshop!

Name _____

Address _____ City _____ Zipcode _____

Phone Number _____ Email _____

Experience as a teaching artist: art form _____

Number of years working with Grades K-12 students _____

Please email this completed form to marcia@hawaiiartsalliance.org, or mail to Hawai'i Arts Alliance, P.O. Box 3948, Honolulu, HI 96812-3948, Attn: Marcia. Mahalo.

This workshop is presented by the Hawai'i Arts Alliance with support from the State Foundation on Culture and the Arts through appropriations from the Legislature of the State of Hawai'i and the National Endowment for the Arts.