

Professional Development
for Teaching Artists

The Art of Lesson Planning

Presenter: Jamie Simpson Steele, Ph.D.

Saturday, September 20, 2008
10:00 am – 1:00 pm

Hawai'i State Art Museum
Multi-Purpose Room
250 South Hotel Street, Honolulu

Join us for an exploration in the art of lesson planning. We will unpack the often mysterious worlds of Hawai'i Content and Performance Standards (HCPS III) and benchmarks, General Learner Outcomes (GLOs), assessment, differentiation, and learning procedures. Importantly, we will look at why careful planning is important and how it can help you enhance student learning.

Jamie Simpson Steele prepares teachers to utilize the performing arts in the classroom through her work at University of Hawai'i's College of Education, and as a consultant for Hawai'i Arts Alliance and Hawai'i State Foundation on Culture and the Arts. She enjoys teaching children of all ages using drama and theatre as catalysts for learning.

Free for ATP and Teaching Artists
